

A few nice things our clients had to say about us...

"The best thing about them is service. If I have an issue, I make a call and it gets actioned right away." Roger Monette, Conoco Phillips

"Our account manager was very responsive and a very nice individual that made me want to stay with their company. I'm the type of person that if I have trust in the company I will stay with them."
Trevor Paddock, Remington Development Corporation

"They answered their phone when the others didn't. They were personable and when I asked specific questions they were able to put together a package. They did this quickly and we were in need of it happening quickly. Our company sends out request to tender and they were the best deal." Oryst Nazarko, Nexen Inc.

"I like that the employees feel a sense of ownership with their company. When I have questions there is always someone who I can speak to." Chung Young, Best Western Port O' Call Hotel

"They were very professional. We have had no problems since the installation."
Brad Jinjoe, Team Ford Sales Ltd.

"They are easy to work with and provide a great service."
Mark Edwards, Westside Recreation Centre

"We chose Survshop because of their willingness to work with us on the reserve and their understanding of the work environment. They had great technical capabilities when we had problems, whether big or small, and they are culturally sensitive."
Wynand Steyn, Stoney Tribal Administration

"The service is great, the equipment is incredible and they give you a lot of technical feedback when required. It boils down to great service - they give you a date and keep it."
Mike Martel, Nascor Inc

"They provide a valuable service to my industry. Because of the direction our society has taken in regards to accountability their company makes it easy for me. They provide an accountability for our police. They keep my officers safe and the public safe. It also provides evidence for the court system and cuts down on my overtime because I can provide proof of events that happen in our office." Chief Leslie, Lacombe Police Force
